

I do not feel that NAB's petition 04-160 has any merit. It is a simple question of freedom of speech, free press, and a free market in this country. They are providing an alternative method of obtaining news and information. How could this be wrong? Only in the eyes of XM Radio's competitors can any complaints be aired. If fear of competition is allowed to control our governmental processes then we all should be watching our backs.